Appomattox Education Association-

OPEN LETTER TO THE PUBLIC

NUMBER II

Recently we pointed out that YOUR public school system is faced with many problems. We stated that our children need the best education we can provide for them; they need an education which will help them to discover facts, to find the truth, to have vision and understanding. Our children are the future — they are your future and ours.

We pointed out that Virginia's classrooms are overcrowded — so much so that in some places schools operate on double shifts, Virginia is short on well qualified teachers, Virginia has been a lucky state, however. We do have many good teachers, dedicated teachers, who stick to their jobs and are giving us much better education than we are paying for.

What kind of education are we paying for? Let's take one example: A teacher with four years of college goes to work for $2,400 a year which is the starting salary for most counties in Virginia. This amounts to $46.15 a week. The city of Richmond pays its garbage collectors $48.31 a week. Thank God we aren't getting what we pay for — we are getting a whole lot more.

Let's make another comparison: A person goes to college for 4 years to prepare for a job. He can take a job teaching for $2400 a year which amounts to a little less than $50 per week; or he can go into business, industry, or get a clerking job for the State or Federal Government for $3600 a year — or $77 per week. Is this justice? Is this right?

While Virginia is next to the wealthiest southern state, only two southern states during 1957-1958 have beginning salaries as low as Virginia's -2400 for degree teachers.

Civilization, progress, and the abundant life depend on education and training. Indeed, survival itself depends upon education. Education must develop our scientists and technicians who will determine our progress toward the more abundant life. Education must teach the rest of us how to use the products which are developed.

A time worn statement says "we only get what we pay for." In Virginia and Appomattox County we aren't paying for such education. Sooner or later we shall reap what we are sowing.

Who can do something to remedy this situation? Only YOU. It's your school syst.m, your future. If anything is to be done YOU must do it. The teachers can't raise their salaries; they can't build classrooms; they can't hire more teachers — indeed, in one locality nearby the parents protested when the high school teachers tried to organize a Future Teachers Club. They didn't want their children to be encouraged to enter a profession where they couldn't make a decent living — they can't make many of the changes needed in schedules and courses. Only YOU can.

YOU CAN if you will answer the call. YOU CAN if you will talk about the needs. YOU CAN if you will contact your school board members, your board of supervisors members, and your legislators, and tell the needs, what you want done about them and that YOU will support these actions. ONLY YOU can do it, but YOU CAN if YOU WILL.

Yours sincerely,
Appomattox Education Association.

Back in 1929, an hour's work in the average factory would buy just under 6½ loaves of bread. Now it will buy 11 loaves. The same pay for an hour's work would have bought 18 ounces of beefsteak; today it buys 34 ounces.

Since heat will cause deterioration and drying, it is best to store grapefruit in the refrigerator.

Lemons tend to shrivel after being kept for a long time. To restore their freshness and increase the amount of juice that can be extracted, immerse the lemons in hot water for half an hour or longer.

Enclose cotton garments that have novelty pearl or glass buttons in a pillow case before you put them in your automatic washing machine or dryer. This will prevent the buttons from breaking or chipping.

When you're measuring molasses, syrup, or honey, use the measuring cup to measure shortening first; then the same cup to measure the sweet stuff. Molasses, syrup, or honey will not stick to the lightly greased measuring cup.

Stale cake and cookies can be crumbled and served with ice cream or in puddings. And a slice of soft bread in a jar of hardened cookies will soften them.

QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

(Editor's note: Here are the questions asked most frequently by Virginia farmers during the past week, as reported by county agricultural agents. The answers are supplied by staff members of the VPI Agricultural Extension Service and/or Experiment Station.

Q. Can fertilizer be applied to corn land before plowing?

A. It is generally better to fertilize and plow down the fertilizer a month to six weeks before planting; but on heavy soils, particularly where sod is being turned, there will be little risk to applying fertilizer now.

Q. What small grain can I plant now to replace the wheat I could not plant?

A. Seed one of the recommended varieties of winter oats.

Q. Should permanent pastures be fertilized now in view of the risk of leaching?

A. Yes. Little or no phosphate or potash will leach from most pasture soils. An extremely sandy soils potash may leach slightly; or on steep slopes where fertilizer is applied when the ground is frozen and there is a heavy washing rain before the ground thaws, there may be some loss.

Q. How long will pine seedlings last in the bale, and how long if heeled in?

A. Don't take chances. If the seedlings cannot be planted within a day or so after being received, heel them in. They should not stay in the heeling-in bed any longer than necessary, although they will last a minimum of three weeks if properly heeled-in and watered.

Q. How much grass or corn silage can I safely feed to ewes that have not lambed? To ewes that have lambed?

A. Before lambing, you can use up to five to six pounds of silage daily to replace part of the hay before lambing; eight to nine pounds after lambing.

Q. Can I use an insecticide-fertilizer mixture this season for the control of alfalfa weevil?

A. Such a mixture is not recommended at present in Virginia. Tests are lamed this year by the VPI Agricultural Experiment Station to evaluate its effectiveness.

Q. If I spray alfalfa fields for chickweed will the chickweed come back from seed next year?

A. Yes, probably so. It will have to be sprayed again.

Jerry Lewis has added another to his long list of talents — he has turned designer. The comedian has had a batch of tuxedo shirts made up with stud buttons and cuff links sewn on. HEALTH AND BEAUTY

An article found in the 'Journal of the American Medical Association' during 1957 states that certain drugs could be a possible cause of ulcers. This is very important to most Americans because, with our tension-filled lives, a great many of us have ulcers and as many more are worried lest they develop one.

An experiment was conducted with a group of guinea pigs — all were fed or injected with nine different drugs. In all other respects their diet and environment were kept identical. After 30 days all the drugs given except 2 were found to have caused ulcers.

Another interesting piece of information concerning stomach ulcer patients is that 75 per cent of them have low blood sugar. The relationship is based on the fact that these patients have a large production of acid in the stomach.

The best way to avoid this condition is to eat a diet high in protein and completely lacking in refined carbohydrates.

A lack of vitamin B seems to be responsible in duodenal ulcer cases, so it is a good idea to take a vitamin B supplement.

You will know it if you have an ulcer starting. There will be a gnawing or aching sensation in the pit of the stomach, just below the breastbone, occuring most often ½ to 3 or 4 hours after a meal. The sooner you begin treatment the better. You can save yourself untold pain.

The current count of ulcer patients seems to be about 3 people in every thousand.

Kansas City.- Wedding bells no longer signal an end to the careers of airline stewardesses. To reduce the alarmingly high (alarming the airlines, that is) percentage of turnover in stewardess personnel, one major airline, at least, has rescinded the rule that upon marriage a stewardess becomes automatically grounded. There is every indication that other major airlines will follow suit.

Julie London, she of the husky, torchy, singing voice, is trying to arrange her return from England to do the lead role opposite Gary Cooper in "Man of The West." There has been some gossip about a reconciliation with Bobby Troup since he and Julie spent so much time together during his recent visit to London. However, Troup returned here for TV work still single, and he claims their visits were strictly business as they're involved in so many enterprises together.
